Have a sit down and relax in Mayberry.

What's News?

Winter is holding on with wet, raining, and muddy fingers, but it's demise is certain. And with its departure comes spring and tourists! It's not Paris, France, but spring in Mt Airy is a fine thing. It's a small town surrounded by the natural beauty of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Enjoy the beautiful and inspiring geography of Pilot Mountain and the Yadkin Valley. The Blue Ridge Parkway is just 14 miles away. And Mount Airy is convenient to the Yadkin Valley Wine region. Several wineries and breweries open their tasting rooms to visitors. Mt Airy is the home of Andy Griffith who popularized the Mayberry RFD television series. Just across the state line in Virginia is the Crooked Road where you can follow the trail of American folk music through towns and hollers of the Blue Ridge Mountains. There are museums, historic homes, restaurants, antique shops, theaters, music venues, and a host of outdoor activities from golf to horseback riding to kayaking. With so many choices, your visit to Mt. Airy will be a fun-filled adventure.

There are a variety of lodging options while you are here too so take your pick, but Cousin Emma's is a unique place to stay. When would you have the chance to stay in the home of a Mount Airy native? I was born and raised in "Mayberry." After some considerable time "out in the wide world," I retired to my hometown and opened my home to share the special atmosphere and local color of this special small town.

Its an old antebellum house near the heart of the historic main street. I take pride in providing a comfortable, convenient, clean and charming place for my visitors to stay. Come on out to the Blue Ridge Mountains and get an authentic taste of Mayberry hospitality. Check out the website for more details and make a reservation.

High Tea, Tales, and Tour

In addition to bed and breakfast guests, I host "High Tea, Tales, and Tours." While you enjoy homemade sandwiches, cookies, and refreshing tea, I share some of the history and tales about my antebellum home. "High Tea, Tales, and Tour" is a lovely complement to a small, special occasion. I have hosted several small weddings followed by high tea. It makes for a pleasant and lovely afternoon in an elegant but homey atmosphere and just costs $10 per person. Not only does High Tea give me the opportunity to share my lovely home, the proceeds fund the summer camp costs for a needy child. Reserve a High Tea for a memorable afternoon or a special occasion now. Attendance is limited to six because that's how many will fit comfortably around the dining room table.

So I am looking forward to spring, High Tea, Tales & Tours, and visits by wonderful guests. So plan your trip to Mt Airy and a book stay at Cousin Emma's Bed and Breakfast.

Opie's Corner

Everyone says older homes are full of character. Well here is one of mine. This is Opie. Don't let the picture fool you, he is a handful but he can display occasional good behavior. He does keep the place lively and he is kind of cute in a devilish kind of way.

Thanks for visiting Cousin Emma's Newsletter. See you this spring in Mayberry!
